

I think it's ridiculous that we would even consider expanding the number of stations to be owned in each market. There are hundreds of markets in the country. There is no reason one voice should dominate any market. Vote no to relax the rules